TEXT: Isaiah 59:12 NKJV For our transgressions are multiplied before You, And our sins testify against us; For our transgressions are with us, And as for our iniquities, we know them:

INTRODUCTION: We live in a day in which the majority of the world around us are denying what the Bible teaches about sin. Many people do not really believe in sin. They think it is a primitive word for _____. It is an old word that comes from an ancient misunderstanding. They believe that in these days of enlightenment that people do not need to be saved from sin but healed from their diseases.

Do not misunderstand. There are diseases from which people need to be healed. Jesus healed people from disease. He also forgave them for their sins. But the two were never the _____.

2. Many people desire for something or somebody else to be _____ for their miserable condition rather than to confront the sin that is in their own life that is the real source of their misery.

 - b. I am talking about labeling something an illness for which there is no biological _____. There is no bacteria, no virus, or no malfunction of the body. There is no medically diagnosable abnormality. There is simply the malfunction of the _____ resulting from wrong choices, habits and lifestyle.
